VIDHAN SABHA SECRETARIAT

NOTIFICATION

Simla-4, the 30th December, 1963

No. 1-29/63-VS.—In pursuance of Rule 219 (2) of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business of the U.P. Legislative Assembly, 1958, as adopted for the Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly, the Speaker on the recommendation of the Committee on Privileges approve for it the following Rules of Procedure (internal working), namely:

1. Words and expressions used herein shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the same meaning as is assigned to them in the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business of the U.P. Legislative Assembly, 1958 as applied to the Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly.

2. All persons, other than the members of the Committee, the Officers of the Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly Secretariat and such other persons as may be expressly permitted by the Chairman to attend the meetings, shall withdraw from the sittings of the Committee, if desired by the Chairman.

3. (a) A member desiring to make any observations at the sittings of the Committee shall address the Chairman and make all remarks to other members through him.

(b) A member shall not speak unless the Chairman calls him.

(c) A member who desires to interrupt while another member is speaking, shall seek the permission of the Chairman to do so.

(d) The Chairman may, if he considers that sufficient discussion has taken place on a question, put the question without further discussion, to vote and arrive at a decision.

(e) A member desiring to reopen a question on which the Committee has already taken a decision, shall, in the first instance obtain the permission of the Chairman to do so.

4. When a question of privilege is referred to the Committee, a memorandum on the subject shall be prepared by the Assembly Secretariat for the consideration of the Committee. The memorandum shall state briefly the point of privilege involved, the facts of the case and the practice and precedents bearing on the question including those relating to the House of Commons of the U.K.

5. When the date, time and place of a sitting of the Committee have been fixed, notice thereof shall be circulated to the members of the Committee, along with a copy of the memorandum.

6. The papers circulated to the members of the Committee shall be marked and treated as confidential and the contents thereof shall not be divulged without the permission of the Chairman.

7. In case of alleged breach of privilege, in which any member of the staff of the Assembly Secretariat is a complainant or a witness or a person complained against, the said person shall keep aloof from the staff required to serve the Committee.

8. The Committee on Privileges shall take Judicial notice of documents mentioned in section 57 of the Indian Evidence Act.

9. A verbatim record of the proceedings of each sitting of the Committee shall be kept by the Secretary.

10. The Assembly Secretariat shall prepare minutes of the sitting of the Committee for approval of the Chairman or the person who presides at the sitting, as the case may be.

11. The fact that evidence was tendered before the Committee shall be mentioned in the minutes of the relevant sittings.

12. The minutes of each sittings of the Committee shall be read to the Committee and duly confirmed by the Chairman.

13. (a) The Chairman may, if in his opinion any documents presented to the Committee or any remarks or observations made by any one in the course of the proceedings of the Committee contain words, phrases or expressions which are unparliamentary, irrelevant or are not couched in respectful, decorous and temperate language, or are otherwise inappropriate, order such words, phrases or expressions to be expunged from the proceedings.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in (a) above, the Speaker shall in like circumstances, have powers to order expunction or to review all decisions regarding expunction from the proceedings and his decision thereon shall be final.

14. After a question of breach of privilege has been referred by the Speaker to the Committee of Privileges, the Chairman shall, as soon as practicable, call a preliminary meeting of the Committee to consider the said question of privilege and to determine the procedure to be followed in the particular circumstances of each case and shall act accordingly.

15. If after going through the relevant material placed before it, the Committee is of opinion that a prima-facie case of breach of privilege has not been made out, it may report to the Assembly accordingly.

16. If the Committee considers that further inquiry is necessary, the person making the complaint, the person complained against and the witnesses, if any, shall be called to appear before the Committee on a specified date, time and place. Thereafter such person shall attend on every date of hearing. The Committee may exempt such person from personal attendance on reasonable grounds. But the Committee may, in its discretion, require the personal attendance of the person so exempted at any stage of the proceedings and may enforce the same.

17. Notices to the complainant, person complained against and witnesses, if any, shall be served by the Secretary in any manner and through such agency as feasible in the circumstances.

18. In case the Committee decides to administer oath or affirmation to witness to be examined before it, the form of oath or affirmation shall be as follows:

"I A, B, do swear in the name of God/solemnly affirm that the evidence which I shall give before this Committee in this case shall be the truth, nothing but the truth, and that I shall conceal nothing."

"मैं . . . सर्वज्ञात्मान ईश्वर को साक्षी मान कर शपथ ग्रहण करता हूँ गम्भीरता पूर्वक स्वीकार करता हूँ कि इस मामले में जो साक्षी मैं कसेटी के समक्ष दूंगा, वह सत्य होगा, मैं कुछ भी छिपाऊंगा नहीं तथा मेरी साक्षी का कोई भी भ्रम असत्य नहीं होगा।"

19. The Committee may in the examination of witnesses be guided, wherever necessary so far as procedural matters are concerned by the principles of ordinary law of the land such as the Civil Procedure Code, the Criminal Procedure Code and the Law of Evidence, etc., and the principles of natural justice.

20. A witness may be asked to place before the Committee any other relevant information which, though not actually covered by the enquiry under consideration, the Committee may think necessary.

21. The Assembly Secretariat shall prepare the draft of the Committee's report containing its recommendations which, after approval by the Chairman, shall be placed before the Committee.

22. After the draft report is presented to the Committee, its Chairman may move that the draft report be taken into consideration, to which any member of the Committee may move a motion by way of amendment that the alternative draft report proposed by him be taken into consideration. The alternative draft report will form part of the minutes of the Committee.

23. After giving due opportunity to the members to speak on the motion and the amendment, the Chairman shall put the question on his motion. If his motion, is adopted, the alternative reports shall be deemed as having fallen through. If, however, the motion is negatived, the Chairman shall put the alternative draft reports one by one to the vote of the Committee till a motion in respect of one is agreed to.

24. If the committee fails to take into consideration any of the draft reports or such other draft report as may be eventually prepared, the matter will be reported by the Chairman to the Speaker, who will give such directions as he may deem expedient in the circumstances.

25. The draft report, in respect of which the motion for consideration is passed by the Committee, will be taken into consideration by the Committee para by para and amendments may be moved to them.

26. After the parawise consideration of the report is over, any member of the Committee may move that this report or the report as amended may be adopted as the report of such Committee and the minutes of the meeting and such evidence form part of the report; and after this motion is passed, the report shall be signed by the Chairman or, if he is not readily available, by another member of the Committee so chosen under rule 215 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business of the U.P. Legislative Assembly, 1958 as applied to the Legislative Assembly of Himachal Pradesh.

27. (a) The expenses on travelling etc., of a witness or witnesses at the place of examination shall be borne by the respective parties which call such witness or witnesses.

(b) In the case of witnesses summoned by the Committee on its own motion, the expenditure on their travelling shall be borne by the Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly Secretariat in accordance with the following provisions:—

(i) The Secretariat shall, in the first instance, determine, on the analogy of the various categories of Government employees, the status of the witness or witnesses, as the case may be, who may be summoned by the Committee.

(ii) After determining the status of a witness as aforesaid, the Travelling Allowance shall be paid to him at the rate as is admissible under the relevant provisions in the Fundamental and Supplementary Rules (P&T Compilation).

28. The forms of the notices to the complainant, person complained against and the witness shall be as given in Schedule.
